How to Participate and Cost

This year we will deliver weekly, Tuesday in Wooster and Saturday mornings at the North Union Farmer's market in Shaker Square, Cleveland. Our focus will be on spring annuals and perennials, with asparagus, rhubarb, salad mixes, root crops, and winter onions, leeks, shallots, sunchokes and strawberries in the spring. The later deliveries in August will bring tomatoes, peppers, eggplants, potatoes, berries, later root crops, beans, raspberries, and assorted greens. Occasionally we will include produce from local amish neighbors (no spray). We are no longer certified organic but continue to fuse organic practices. We are placing a stronger focus on permaculture and perennials. We encourage you to reuse containers for packaging produce.

Cost is $30 /week X number of weeks.

Select 10 weeks or more from the delivery calendar appropriate to your location. Return form with dates chosen (either cross out no-delivery dates or circle desired dates). Include payment (check) with form.
